

JOB DESCRIPTION

1. Position's details

Position's Title:	Software Engineer
Department:	Information Technology

Academic
Qualifications:

- Undergraduate degree of Computer Science or in a related field
- Postgraduate degree in Computer Science or in a related field will be considered an advantage

2. Position Outline

The IT Business Applications Officer is responsible to implement and support systems relating to Business Software Applications through a controlled process, ensuring compliance with the Bank's policies and procedures.

The main responsibilities are outlined below:

- Implementation and Operational Support of Third-Party Software Applications
- In-house development of Software Applications
- Design, develop and implement integrations between Software Applications
- Develop automations and any other value-added improvements
- Creation of Reports (Operational reports, Management Reports/Data Analytics, Regulatory reporting)
- Ensure compliance with Bank's policies and procedures
- Setup and Testing of Third-Party applications in collaboration with external vendors
- Implement and/or apply fixes and changes (enhancements, upgrades) on applications
- Collaborate with other Units either for investigation of issues or for the implementation of projects and participate in the Software Development Cycle
- Prepare and maintain technical documentation and manuals

3. Qualifications/Skills

- Good knowledge of Transactional SQL (Microsoft SQL and/or Oracle)
- Experience with systems integrations through various technologies such as Microsoft SSIS, APIs, IBM Integration BUS will be considered an advantage
- Knowledge of Microsoft .NET (C#) will be considered an advantage
- Experience with reporting tools such as Business Objects, Power BI, Microsoft SSRS

- Experience with the usage of debugging software to analyse and step through code to determine corrective action will be considered an advantage
- Ability to deliver quality deliverables by debugging, testing, and ensuring functionality
- Ability to work in teams with both technical and business people
- Very good communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment, handle multiple tasks at the same time with specific deadlines with quality deliverables
- Fluency in Greek and English, both verbal and written